WBA Leadership Institute Mentoring and Financial Agreement

(To be completed by Pastor)

The WBA Leadership Institute believes that the success of the student is connected to the significant relationships the student has in ministry. Every student is required to have a mentor for guidance, encouragement, affirmation. As the applicant's pastor, you are uniquely qualified to mentor this student.

As the pastor of this applicant's church, I agree to mentor the applicant for a period of one hour each month for the duration of this year's Leadership Institute. I understand that the first meeting will begin in September and continue monthly through April of next year. I will also complete the one page reporting form required by the Institute as part of this Mentoring Agreement.
